

Amanda L. Bridson

ASSOCIATE

Amanda Bridson is an associate in the firm's Dallas office, and focuses her practice primarily on corporate litigation.

She has handled a wide range of disputes on corporate matters, such as information technology outsourcing agreements, non-solicit/non-compete agreements, whistleblower claims and trade secretion protection. Her experience extends to both Plaintiff and Defense work. She began her legal career by representing employers and insurance carriers in workers' compensation disputes. Upon relocating to Texas, she spent some time negotiating auto accident settlements on behalf of injured victims and recovered millions of dollars from insurance carriers on their behalf.

She enjoys traveling to the Caribbean with her husband and recently developed a love of cruising. When not planning her next trip, she enjoys testing her physical strength and endurance in outdoor obstacle course and road races. She also enjoys playing mom to a spoiled 3 year old French Bulldog named Axel.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Complex Business Litigation
- Insurance Defense
- Personal Injury
- Qui Tam Litigation
- Whistleblower Lawsuits

Credentials

EDUCATION

- University of Florida Levin College of Law (JD, 2010)
- University of Florida (BA, 2006)
 - Sociology

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Florida
- Texas

Knowledge

ARTICLES

- Compliance Conundrums: Navigating the False Claims Act
MARCH 22, 2019

- Whistleblowing in the Medical Industry: How To Report Healthcare Fraud

A P R I L

1

News

-